Jenny and Betty

Last week, Jenny and Betty got their Math tests. Betty was not happy because she got low marks. Jenny was clever but she was not friendly. She was good at Math, but she laughed at Betty.

At recess, Jenny fell down on the playground.

"Ouch! I am hurt," shouted Jenny.

Betty saw Jenny was hurt. She helped her up and asked Jenny, "Are you okay?"

"Don't worry. Let's go to the medical room." Betty said.

Betty looked after Jenny.

"I'm sorry," Jenny said, "I shouldn't laugh at you."

"It's okay, Jenny." Betty said, "I want to make friends with you."

"I want to make friends with you too" said Jenny.

At last, Betty forgave Jenny. They were good friends.
