Jenny and Betty were Good Friends

Yesterday, Jenny and Betty got their Math test. Betty was not happy because she got low marks. Jenny was clever but she was not friendly. She was good at Math, but she laughed at Betty.

At recess, Jenny fell. She was hurt. She cried sadly. Betty saw it and helped her up. They went to Medical Room. Betty looked after Jenny.

"I'm sorry." Jenny said, "I shouldn't laugh at you."

"It's okay!" Betty replied.

"Thank you for your help," Jenny said.

"Please be careful next time" Betty said.
