The three bears' house

On a sunny day, Goldilocks went to the three bears' house again.

She was hungry. She went to the kitchen. She wanted to bake cookies. In the kitchen, she could not bake cookies by herself. The kitchen was in a mess.

She wanted to play. She went to the living room. The three bears were sleeping. The living room was very messy.

The three bears woke up. They saw the messy living room and kitchen. They were very angry. They said, 'Get out!' Goldilocks went home sadly.
