Goldilocks and three bears

On a sunny day, Goldilocks came back to three bears' house again.

She felt hungry. So, she went to the kitchen. She wanted to bake cookies but she made the kitchen in a mess because she could not bake cookies by herself. She failed to bake cookies.

Then, she went to the living room. She was sleepy. So, she slept in a bed. She woke up. She played in the living room. She made a mess in the living room. The three bears came back. 'I'm sorry. Can you forgive me?' asked Goldilocks.

So, the three bears forgave her and asked her to tidy the kitchen and the living room together.
