Treasure Hunting

My friend William and I knew that there was a treasure in Cheung Chau. So we went treasure hunting on 5th May. We went to Cheung Chau by our pirate ship.

When we arrived at Cheung Chau, we argued about how to find the treasure. I said, 'Let's go straight.' William said, 'That's not what the map says.'

After that, We had a fight. I was scared so I dropped the map into the sea. William jumped into the sea. He tried to get back the map but he stayed too long in the water. He could not breathe so he died. I picked up the map again. I looked at the map and found the treasure on the Island. I got the treasure to the ship. Then I loaded the anchor very fast and sailed away.

I lost William but I got the treasure.
