Goldilocks and the three bears

One sunny day, Goldilocks was bored, so she went to the three bears house to apologize to them.

When she got there, the room was a mess. 'I should bake some cookies for my apology to them,' said Goldilocks. Goldilocks could not do many things by herself so she made a mess in the kitchen.

The living room was a mess too. She tried to clean the living room, but the three bears came back, 'Can you forgive me?' said Goldilocks. They forgave her.

Then, they became friends. They cleaned the house and ate porridge together.
