

Goldilocks and the three bears

One sunny day, Goldilocks went to the bears' house again. She wanted to bake some cookies for them and say sorry to them.

Goldilocks went to the kitchen to bake some chocolate cookies but she made a mess in the kitchen, living room and the whole house. She could not do so many things by herself. She tries to clean up the mess quickly but she could not tidy it up.

In the evening, the three bears came back home. They saw the mess in the house. They were so angry! They saw Goldilocks sitting on the floor and crying. Goldilocks saw the three bears. She said sorry and the three bears forgave her.

From then on, they were good friends. They cleaned the house quickly. Goldilocks was so happy because they forgave her and she had some good friends. They baked some yummy chocolate cookies together. They were tasty. After that, Goldilocks went to the three bears house and played with the little bear.
