

Goldilocks and Three Hungry Bears

Today was a sunny day. Goldilocks went to the three bears' house and she wanted to play with them. No one answered the door.

Goldilocks went to the kitchen and wanted to bake some cookies by herself. However, she did not know how to use the oven. So, she made a mess in the kitchen.

Next, she played in the living room by herself and she accidentally broke the chair. Oh no! Everything was messy.

When the three bears went back home, Goldilocks asked the bears that if they could forgive her. Finally, the bears taught Goldilocks how to bake cookies and played games with her. By the time they finished the games, the cookies were ready!
