Find the Tortoise

Yesterday, my teachers, Mr. Chung, Miss Ho, Miss Wong, Mr. Lee, my classmate, Ryan, and I went outside to look for the missing tortoise by car.

Our teachers were looking for some clues while Ryan and I were discussing how to find the tortoise. While Miss Wong was take a nap, Mr. Lee was reading a map.

Suddenly, it was raining heavily. Then, Mr. Chung could not see clearly and our car crashed into a tree. Luckily, none of us got hurt. Mr. Chung got off the car and fixed it. While he was fixing the car, he saw that the tortoise was behind the tree! We were so excited! Finally, we went back with the tortoise.
